A war rages, fueled by greed and power, leaving behind a trail of shattered lives and broken dreams.

In this collection of poems, we become witnesses to the horrors of war through the eyes of those who have endured it firsthand.

Through vivid imagery and poignant words, the author paints a grim portrait of the devastation that has become the daily reality for the people of Yemen.

We witness the destruction of homes, the loss of loved ones, and the erosion of hope.

But amidst the darkness, there is a flicker of resilience, a testament to the indomitable spirit of the Yemeni people.

These poems are a cry for help, a plea for the world to open its eyes and witness the suffering inflicted upon the innocent.

They are a reminder that war is not a game, but a tragedy that tears at the fabric of humanity.

As we read these poems, we are compelled to act, to demand an end to the violence and to stand in solidarity with the people of Yemen.

We must not allow this silent genocide to continue.

We must amplify the voices of the voiceless and demand that the world take notice.

Together, we can break the silence and bring about a just and lasting peace for the people of Yemen.
