THE PARTING GLASS

This beautiful slow air can be found in a number of collections, the version here being that of the one found in "An Irish Tunebook, Vol. 4." The title suggests a final drink before the separation of friends.

Traditional Irish
Arranged by Glenn Wright

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 3/4 time signature. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature change to one flat, and a 3/4 time signature. The melody starts with a quarter rest, followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes. The lower staff is in bass clef and contains a simple accompaniment of quarter and eighth notes.

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The upper staff features a trill-like flourish over the first few notes of the second measure. The lower staff continues with its accompaniment.

The third system continues the piece. The upper staff shows the melody with some grace notes. The lower staff continues the accompaniment.

The fourth system concludes the piece. The upper staff ends with a final cadence, and the lower staff ends with a final bass line.
