A Tapestry of History and Magic

In the heart of the American frontier, where the untamed wilderness met the burgeoning nation, lies "This Strange Land," a captivating novel by Shara McCallum that weaves together the threads of history, magic, and the unwavering spirit of women.

Set amidst the tumultuous events of the Civil War, the novel follows the intertwined destinies of three extraordinary women: Patience Murphy, a brave frontierswoman; Mary Todd Lincoln, the enigmatic First Lady; and Selene, a mysterious young woman possessing an ancient power.

As the war rages around them, these women find themselves at a crossroads, their lives and beliefs tested by the challenges of the time.

Patience fights to protect her family and her land, while Mary Todd navigates the treacherous waters of White House politics. Selene, guided by a mystical connection to nature, seeks to unravel the secrets of her past and her destiny.

The Indomitable Spirit of Women

At the heart of "This Strange Land" lies a profound exploration of the resilience and determination of women in the face of adversity. Patience, Mary Todd, and Selene are each faced with unique obstacles, but they refuse to be defined by their circumstances.

Patience's unwavering courage and resourcefulness in the unforgiving wilderness are a testament to the strength of human spirit. Mary Todd's resilience and intelligence amidst the chaos of war reveal the hidden depths of a woman often misunderstood.

And Selene's mystical connection to the land and her unwavering pursuit of knowledge embody the transformative power of the feminine.

A Haunting and Atmospheric Setting

Shara McCallum's vivid prose transports readers to the heart of the American frontier, where the vast wilderness is both a place of wonder and danger. The novel's atmospheric descriptions bring to life the sights, sounds, and smells of this untamed land.

From the sprawling forests to the treacherous rivers, the setting of "This Strange Land" becomes a character in itself, shaping the lives and destinies of its inhabitants.
