Chapter 1: The Bird's-Eye View

As Chin surveyed the opulent crime scene, a sense of unease settled upon him. The victim, a renowned art collector, lay lifeless in the dimly lit gallery beneath a priceless painting. The room was bathed in a sinister crimson glow, casting long shadows that seemed to dance with the secrets they held.

Chapter 2: The Whispers of the Night

Chin delved into the enigmatic world of art collectors, art forgers, and shadowy figures lurking in the underbelly of Chiang Mai. Each encounter revealed a tantalizing clue, a glimpse into the killer's twisted mind. The whispers of the night guided Chin's investigation, leading him closer to the sinister truth.

Chapter 3: The Rhythm of Deception

As the investigation intensified, Chin found himself entangled in a web of lies and deception. Suspects emerged from the shadows, their motives veiled in ambiguity. The rhythm of deception beat relentlessly, threatening to drown out the truth.

Chapter 4: Unveiling the Truth

With each step closer to unraveling the mystery, Chin faced perilous confrontations and deadly encounters. The House of Rooster Happiness became a stage for a deadly game of cat and mouse. As the pieces of the puzzle fell into place, the truth emerged, as shocking and twisted as the art that adorned the walls.

Chapter 5: The House of Shadows

In a climactic showdown, Chin confronted the killer in the eerie silence of the House of Rooster Happiness. The shadows that had enveloped the investigation finally dissipated, revealing the darkness that lay at the heart of the crime. Justice prevailed, but not without a profound cost.

Epilogue: The Echoes Linger

The echoes of the murder at the House of Rooster Happiness reverberated through the streets of Chiang Mai. Detective Sergeant Chin emerged from the darkness, forever haunted by the secrets he uncovered. The city, once vibrant and serene, now carried an undercurrent of mystery, a reminder of the darkness that lurked beneath its gilded surface.
