Step 3: Add the Embellishments

Once the plastic canvas portion is complete, it's time to add some embellishments to personalize your napkin holder. You can use yarn, beads, or any other decorative elements to create a unique and eye-catching design. For example, you could embroider a floral pattern on the front or add a tassel to the bottom.

Step 4: Assemble the Napkin Holder

With the plastic canvas and embellishments ready, it's time to assemble your napkin holder. Fold the plastic canvas in half lengthwise, bringing the two edges together.
