In his new book, No Quarter, William Norman Grigg takes aim at the Left, the Right, and everyone in between. Grigg is a political commentator who is known for his controversial views, and his book is sure to spark debate. Grigg covers a wide range of topics in No Quarter, from the war in Iraq to the Occupy Wall Street movement. His writing is often provocative and opinionated, but it is also well-researched and thought-provoking.

One of the most striking things about No Quarter is Grigg's willingness to challenge conventional wisdom. He argues, for example, that the war in Iraq was justified and that the Occupy Wall Street movement was nothing more than a bunch of spoiled brats.
