Imagine if you could make a pact with the devil. What would you be willing to give up in exchange for your heart's desire? In Pact With Heartbreaker Havenbrook, a gripping new novel from bestselling author Sarah MacLean, a young woman named Eleanor Worthington makes a pact with the notorious rake, Lord Havenbrook, that will change her life forever.

Eleanor is a young woman with a secret. She is in love with her best friend's brother, Lord Havenbrook. But Havenbrook is a notorious rake, and he has no interest in settling down. Eleanor knows that she can never have him, but she can't stop herself from dreaming about him.

One night, Eleanor makes a wish upon a shooting star. She wishes that she could be with Havenbrook, no matter the cost. To her surprise, her wish is granted. But there is a catch. Havenbrook will only agree to be with her if she makes a pact with him. The pact is simple: Eleanor must give up her heart.

Eleanor is torn. She knows that if she gives up her heart, she will never be able to love anyone else. But she also knows that she can never be happy without Havenbrook. In a moment of desperation, she agrees to the pact.

At first, Eleanor is happy. She has everything she ever wanted. But soon, she begins to realize the true cost of her pact. Without her heart, she is nothing more than a shell of a person. She can no longer feel love, joy, or sadness. She is simply...empty.

Eleanor knows that she must find a way to break the pact. But how? Havenbrook is a powerful man, and he will not let her go without a fight. Eleanor must find a way to defeat him, or she will be trapped in her loveless existence forever.
