Reminders Of Him is a powerful and emotionally resonant novel that explores the complexities of love, loss, and redemption. Colleen Hoover, the #1 New York Times bestselling author, delivers a captivating story that will stay with readers long after they turn the last page.

The novel follows Kenna Rowan, a young woman who is struggling to rebuild her life after serving time in prison for a tragic mistake. When she is released and given the chance to start over, she is determined to make things right with her young daughter, Diem. But Diem has been adopted by a wealthy family, and Kenna must prove herself worthy of being a mother again.

As Kenna fights to reconnect with her daughter and rebuild her shattered life, she encounters Ledger Ward, a enigmatic and troubled soul. Ledger is a former foster child who has spent his life running from his past. He is drawn to Kenna's strength and resilience, and he finds himself falling head over heels for her.

But Kenna is wary of trusting anyone again, especially after the pain she has been through. She must decide whether she is willing to risk her heart for a chance at happiness.

Reminders Of Him is a beautifully written and emotionally charged novel that will resonate with readers of all ages. Colleen Hoover has crafted a story that is both heartbreaking and heartwarming, and she has created characters that readers will never forget.
