Dive into a World of Twisted Obsession and Dark Academia

Step into the captivating world of 'The Roommate: The Moors Collective Rage', a psychological thriller that explores the dangerous depths of human obsession. Set against the backdrop of a prestigious university, this gripping novel delves into the twisted relationship between two female students and the devastating consequences that unfold.

Unravel a Chilling Tale of Forbidden Desire

Rebecca, a brilliant and ambitious student, finds herself drawn to her enigmatic new roommate, Saskia. As their connection intensifies, Rebecca becomes increasingly consumed by Saskia's allure. However, beneath Saskia's charming facade lies a hidden darkness, a dangerous obsession that threatens to consume them both.

Witness the Descent into Madness

As the lines between reality and delusion blur, Rebecca's grip on sanity loosens. Saskia's manipulative nature and Rebecca's own vulnerabilities create a powder keg of emotions, leading to a series of disturbing events that threaten to spiral out of control.

Immerse Yourself in a Haunting Atmosphere

The novel's atmospheric setting transports readers to a world of dark academia and gothic charm. The university's ancient halls, shrouded in mystery, provide a chilling backdrop to the unfolding events. The eerie moorlands that surround the campus become a symbol of the darkness that lurks within the characters' hearts.
