Meet the Characters: A Tapestry of Unspoken Longings

The manga revolves around two main characters whose lives intertwine in a profound and unexpected way: Hayato, a popular and charismatic high school student, and Haru, a reserved and introspective classmate who harbors a secret admiration for Hayato.

Hayato, with his charming smile and confident demeanor, seems to have it all. Yet, beneath his carefree exterior lies a hidden past that weighs heavily on his heart. Haru, on the other hand, is a quiet observer who has always felt overshadowed by his peers. But within his quiet nature burns an intense longing for Hayato, a love that he has kept hidden for years.

A Silent Symphony of Unspoken Emotions

"You Don't Even Know My Feelings" is not simply a love story; it is an exploration of the unspoken thoughts and feelings that shape our relationships. Mayu Shinjo masterfully captures the nuances of human emotions, delving into the complexities of love, longing, and the fear of rejection.

Through heart-wrenching dialogue and evocative imagery, the manga portrays the silent struggle that Haru faces as he wrestles with his unrequited feelings. His every glance at Hayato is filled with longing, every stolen moment a bittersweet reminder of his unfulfilled desire.

Yet, amidst the unspoken words and concealed emotions, a flicker of hope emerges. Hayato, despite his seemingly carefree nature, begins to notice the subtle signs of Haru's affection. As their paths continue to cross, an unspoken connection begins to form between them, a bridge that slowly spans the distance between their hearts.

A Journey of Self-Discovery and Acceptance

"You Don't Even Know My Feelings" is not just a story about love; it is also a journey of self-discovery and acceptance. Both Hayato and Haru embark on personal transformations as they navigate the complexities of their emotions and their relationship.

Hayato, once afraid of confronting his past, learns to embrace his vulnerability and the true nature of his feelings. Haru, once trapped in the shadows of his own insecurities, finds the courage to express himself and pursue his dreams.
